

ROXANA DONISANU CURRICULUM VITAE

Depicting a world of reverie and emotions one can easily relate to. Roxana Donisanu's use of complementing pastel colours, subtle figures and shapes are strongly reminiscent of Chagall and Picasso. Abundant in symbolic elements, cubistic forms and swirls Donisanu impresses with her unique style. Being highly praised by the world of Plastic Art and encouraged by celebrities in the media, Roxana has made a rapid ascension in the art world. She is an exceptional personality and artist, who began painting before she could read or write. Being a "new Alexandra Nechita – the little Picasso" she was accepted in the 'Henry Coanda National Foundation for support of extremely talented teenagers' in 1996. Having won several awards, being presented in numerous international publications and exhibited in various solo exhibitions in Eastern Europe, her work has been in huge demand, with prices going up rather than down.
